Cape Coral

Fathoms Restaurant @ Cape Harbour

Fathoms is definitely a hot spot in SW Cape Coral. With water views, great food, and live entertainment, it's no wonder this place is so popular. Add to it the fact that it's pet friendly, and you open up a whole new world. I brought my German Shepherd, Tiki, there and felt very comfortable at the oversized, outdoor patio bar where I sat on a high-top stool talking with friends and listening to music. If you prefer, you can choose an outdoor table where you can enjoy dinner and drinks, and a cool breeze from the nearby waterway. Situated on the Caloosahatchee River, this place is not only one of my favorites, but a prime pick for locals and visitors, residents and boaters, and of course, dog lovers. Fathoms offers both inside and outside dining and, in my opinion, has become known for the best pizza in town. If you like yachts, boats, and water, then you're in the right place. People watching? You bet! In addition to live entertainment throughout the week, definitely try out Tuesday, Friday and Sunday nights when locals and snowbirds gather for some of the best music performances in town. And don't forget your furry friend! Fathoms is located in Cape Harbour and is accessible by boat off the Caloosahatchee River or by car from Chiquita Boulevard. Call for details, 239.542.0123.

Dog Beach, Bonita Springs

Believe it or not, there is a beach right here in SW Florida made just for dogs! The Dog Beach is located just south of Fort Myers Beach off Estero Blvd, as you are passing Lovers Key State Park and entering Bonita Springs. Watch closely for a small sign that marks the location off to the right. Parking is just off the side of the road. Be sure to check for "high tide or low tide" because it makes a difference in how easily it is to walk to the beach. There is a bit of a trail to get there, and at high tide, you may find yourself wading in knee-high waters to get to the actual beach. Once you follow the trail, it is well worth it. The beach opens up in front of you and it is beautiful! On good days (low tide) there is quite a bit of area to play, frolic, set up a beach chair, and enjoy your favorite beverage. Throw a stick, football, tennis ball, and even swim with your best buddy right in the Gulf. (Keep in mind a good pet owner always watches their pet.) If you have a boat, anchor near the beach, and let your dog cool off while playing with his new furry friends.

Hooked Island Grill, Matlacha

Hooked Island Grill is a restaurant specializing in broasted chicken, seafood, and Love Boat ice cream (14 flavors). There's no better place to dine on the water and see the sunset than this café. So, how do they make their famous broasted chicken? It's a pressure-cooking method that keeps meat juicy and tender inside, and crispy on the outside without being greasy. With conventional frying, 30% of the oil is absorbed; but with broasting, only 2% is absorbed. Bring your pup or doggie, have dinner on the patio and check out the amazing waterfront views of Matlacha Pass; it is one of the most incredible places to view sunsets!!! 239.540.3463.

Bert's Bar, Matlacha

Come by boat or car to the best kept secret on Pine Island in Matlacha. As the song says, some folks come for the music, and some come for the view of beautiful Matlacha Pass. Either way, I found locals and tourists alike having a blast at one of Pine Island's favorite watering holes. Sit on the edge of the dock and dangle your feet close to the water, while your dog lies at your side, or choose to sit on the patio. Another local's favorite, the audience at Bert's is a wide variety of fun loving people; anyone is welcome and everyone feels welcome as soon as they walk in! Bert's Bar hosts the BEST bands in town, focusing on the BLUES. 239.282.3232.

The street literally ends at the water's edge overlooking San Carlos Bay. The waterfront is the hot spot on the southern tip of Pine Island. The inside of this place has a ton of personality. I couldn't stop looking at the walls, the ceiling, and behind the bar.

Everywhere I looked there was some original piece of "artwork" created or donated by previous patrons and regulars. It could literally take you all day to get through the decor! Located in the heart of St. James City and old Pine Island, you will find fresh ingredients, local seafood, and a wonderful menu with a little something for everyone. Be sure to bring your pup, order a Land Shark beer with a plate of shrimp, and hang out for music. What a great day to spend with friends and your dog! It doesn't get much better than this. Come by boat or car. I also learned Woody's has a great story to tell for dog lovers. The restaurant is named after a pure-bred yellow Labrador, born in 1994 outside Light Street, PA, a town boasting a small population of about 450. Woodrow Wilson (Woody for short) was definitely not the runt of the litter...in fact, he was all paws, a giant dump truck-sized head, and most importantly a huge heart. There was never a bigger, gentler dog around. He was more than happy to lie around and be a jungle gym to all the kids in the family. Woody was a true character. Want to learn more? Go to Woody's and read the rest of the story on the menu. Call for details, 239.283.5555.

It's always a good time taking a self-guided tour of the Koreshan gardens and buildings. You can relax along the Estero River in the shade of the historic Bamboo Landing, or watch the Koreshan story play out in the founder's house. Picnic facilities are available for a comfortable day along the Estero River. Or, if activity is what you crave, rent a canoe/kayak and paddle 3.5 miles out to Mound Key Archeological State Park. You can even set up camp for the weekend. Domestic pets are permitted in designated day-use areas. Call for information on park fees, camping fees, and guided tours, 239.992.0311.

Love Boat Home Made Ice Cream

This is the most popular place for ice cream near Ft. Myers Beach. You will find some of the most delicious homemade ice cream in SW Florida! With lines literally out the door, and during season extending alongside the building, it is well worth the wait! My favorite is the “grasshopper” flavor with chocolate cookie chunks and mint-flavored ice cream. It is fabulous! Tiki gets a small doggie vanilla ice cream cup and we both enjoy our treats sitting at the picnic table directly out front, people watching, of course. Ice cream and petting a dog – what could be better? Choose from 50+ flavors of the creamiest ice cream, sugar/fat free selections, sorbets, and more! Bring your furry baby for a warm and fuzzy experience. Call for details, 239.466.7077.

Two locations: 16229 San Carlos Blvd, Ft. Myers (on the way to Ft. Myers Beach near Kelly Rd.) and 1700 Periwinkle Way, Sanibel Island. There is also a place on Matlacha that serves a few flavors of LOVE BOAT ice cream called Island Café, which is also pet-friendly.
